TRAVEL REPORT (July 2018)

The trip happened during 14th- 21st of July. The main purpose of the trip was to advance with the data gathering phase of the project. I visited Milan, Carrara, and Florence on the occasion of the ongoing project Martellata_14.09.1991. A travel grant from Kuvataide Akatemia (of 265€) covered a part of the costs of the trip. It involved the following visits:

IN MILAN (14.07-17.07)

1. Met Cinzia Parnigoni, at her restoration workshop. She is responsible of the reconstruction of David's toe as much as for the major restoration of the sculpture during 2002-2004. The meeting had the purpose to gather technical details about the restitution of David's toe. The interview lasted two hours. Parnigoni searched in her personal archive (two very large files) and handed me the following documents:
  - a. Article of 1992 by art historian Annamaria Giusti and restorer Roberto Nesti "'David' di Michelangelo: Un restauro in punta di piedi" published at the OPD Restauro. Rivista dell'Opificio delle Pietre Dure e Laboratori di Restauro di Firenze. Ministeri per i Beni Culturali e Ambientali. Firenze : Centro Di, 1992, n.4.
  - b. Petrographic and physical mineralogical characterization of marble. Study made by Fabio Fratini, Consiglio Nazionale delle Ricerche di Firenze, department of Heritage Conservation.
  - c. Investigations on the David. Analytical and chemical-physical checks on marble fragments coming from the left toe. Made by Donato Attanaglio<sup>1</sup>, Rosario Platania<sup>2</sup> and Paolo Rochhi<sup>1</sup>. Consiglio Nazionale delle Ricerche di Roma-Montelibretti, <sup>1</sup> Institute of Structure of Matter and <sup>2</sup> Institute of Inorganic Methodologies and Plasmas.
2. Met the student Rosanna Lama, which final graduation thesis "Non Conservare. Non esporre" at ISIA Urbino I co-supervised. Her research was finally selected for the category "Design per la cultura e lo sviluppo" of the Premio Nazionale delle Arti 2018.
3. Visited Hangar Biocca and Fondazione Prada, among other institutions. It was very inspiring to see the work Processo Grottesco by Thomas Demand.
4. Met the independent curator and art historian Vincenzo Estremo, to explain him about the project and value a possible collaboration.
5. Met Sara Serighelli from the space O'. To explain him about the project and value a possible collaboration.

IN FIRENZE (17.07-18.07)

1. Met Carola Haupt, member of Radio Papesse, with which collective I hold a production agreement. She coordinated my trip and meetings in Carrara.

Haupt hosted me. We drove with her car from Florence to Carrara. In Carrara she took care of the meetings, audio-recorded the interviews and translated from Italian when I had doubts during my conversations.

IN CARRARA (18.07-20.07)

1. Library of Carrarra – consulted dictionaries and manuals in order to get familiar with the Italian vocabulary related to the quarry and stone extraction: lizzatura, cavatore, etc.
2. Met Oronozo Sabatino, former director of Scuola del marmo. Visited the technical school, the Laboratorio Marmore+, and the Studio Costa.
3. Visited the Museum of the Fantiscritti Museum; by the hand of Walter Danesi. Visited the Fantiscritti quarry, one of the several valleys of Carrara quarry. This is the provenance area of the marble block from which the David was carved out. The origin of the stone was determined after the analysis of the small pieces that were chipped off the finger.
Visited the internal quarry, also in Fantiscritti valley.
I took sand samples of the area.
4. Met the artistic director Luciano Massari. Visited with him the Michelangelo quarry, the area from which the artist used to choose personally the stone blocks for his sculptures. The purest marble “marmo statuario” is located there.
Visited the Laboratorio Michelangelo.
I took powder samples from this workshop.
5. Visited Torart, a company specialized in stone cutting that concerns the application of new technologies, such as the use of anthropomorphic robots.
6. Visited Palazzo Forti, a residency for artists in Carrara. I met Francesca Forti, director of the residency. We are now considering a future residency.
7. Visited Museo Civico del Marmo Carrara, CAP-Centro Arti Plastiche Carrara and CARMI-Museo Carrara e Michelangelo e Parco della Padula.

IN FIRENZE (20.07-21.07)

1. I met Franca Falletti, former director of Galleria dell'Accademia. She gave me the direct contact of the secretary of the archive of the gallery. I agreed with Marzia Marigo to contact back in September, to coordinate my next visit.
2. I visited Casa Buonarroti, where the Fondazione Michelangelo Buonarroti is located. I visited its exhibition; and gathered information to access their library and achieves in my next visit.

In the next pages, pictures of the report and a detailed list of the real costs of the trip.

Meeting Cinzia Parnigioni at her workshop in Milan, 14th July 2018_

She is responsible of the reconstruction of David's toe as much as for the major restoration of the sculpture during 2002-2004. The meeting had the purpose to gather technical details about the restitution of David's toe. The interview lasted two hours. 2. Petrographic and physical mineralogical characterization of marble. Study made by Fabio Fratini, Consiglio Nazionale delle Ricerche di Firenze, department of Heritage Conservation.

3. Investigations on the David. Analytical and chemical-physical checks on marble fragments coming from the left toe. Made by Donato Attanasio<sup>1</sup>, Rosario Platania<sup>2</sup> and Paolo Rochhi<sup>1</sup>. Consiglio Nazionale delle Ricerche di Roma-Montelibretti, <sup>1</sup>Institute of Structure of Matter and <sup>2</sup>Institute of Inorganic Methodologies and Plasmas.

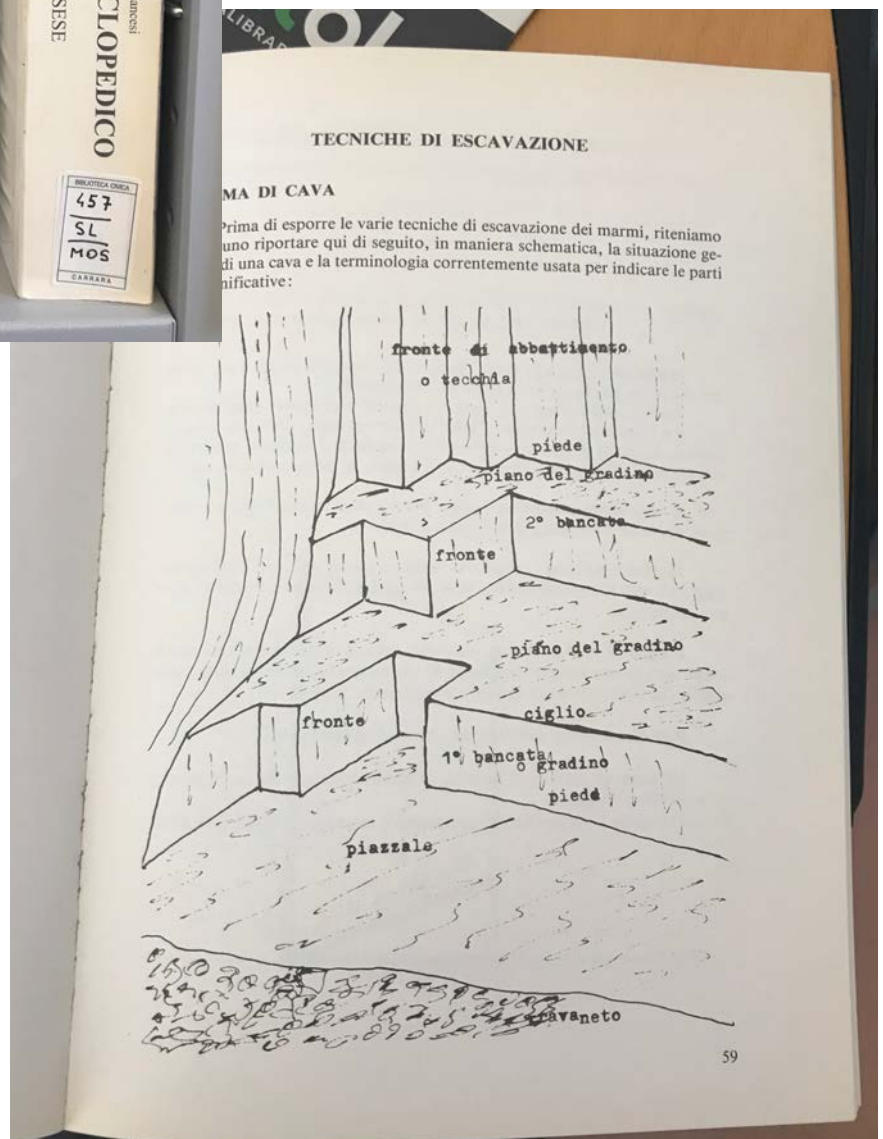

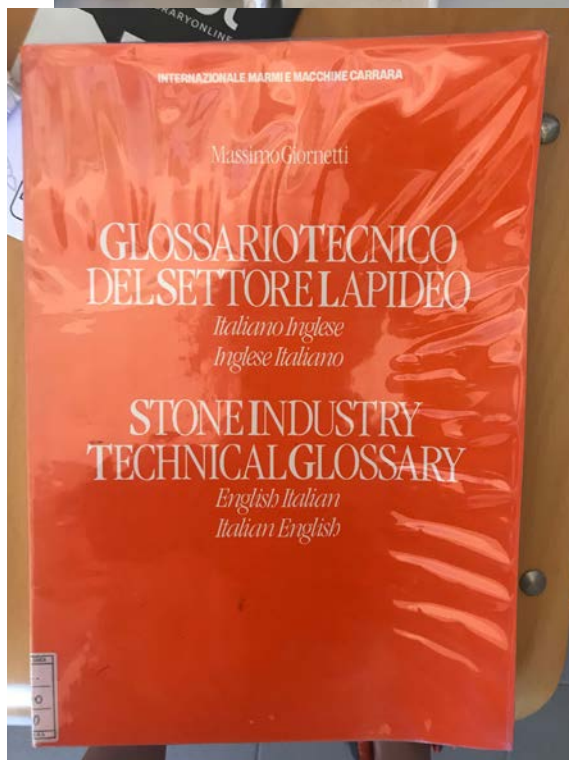

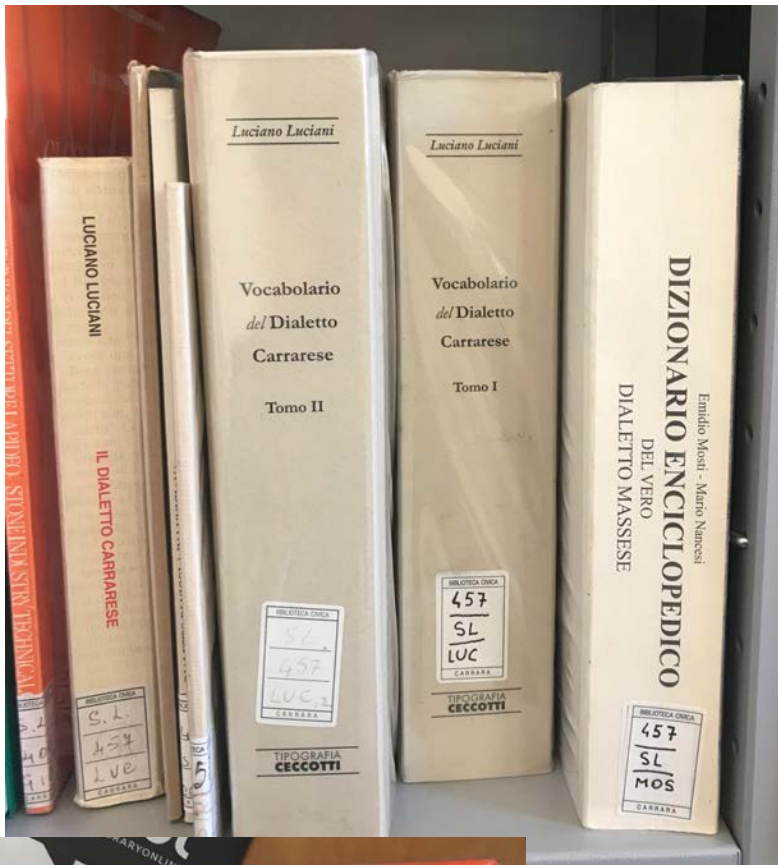

4. The existence of clay copies of the broken toe; and the contact of the mould technician from the Gipsoteca di Firenze who made the mould and the consequent copies (Luigi Davitti).

Visiting Carrara, its quarries and workshops, July 17th -20th, 2018_

On July 17th I went by train to Firenze. There i met Carola Haupt, member of Radio Papesse, with which collective I hold a production agreement. She coordinated my trip and meetings in Carrara. Haupt hosted me. We drove with her car from Florence to Carrara. In Carrara she took care of the meetings, audio-recorded the interviews and translated from Italian when I had doubts during my conversations. In Carrara we did the following:

1. Library of Carrarra – consulted dictionaries and manuals in order to get familiar with the Italian vocabulary related to the quarry and stone extraction: lizzatura, cavatore, etc. Before that I already watched some documentaries about it.

2. Met Oronzo Sabatino, former director of Scuola del marmo. Visited the technical school, the Laboratorio Marmore, and the Studio Costa.

3. Visited the Fantiscritti Museum; by the hand of Walter Danesi.

4. Visited the Fantiscritti quarry, one of the several valleys of Carrara quarry. This is the provenance area of the marble block from which the David was carved out. Gentile Marzia, proverò a scriverti in italiano, così progredisco con la lingua :)

I documenti dell'archivio della Galleria, che vorrei consultare per la mia ricerca, sono relativi a:

- I rapporti della guardia di sicurezza in servizio al momento dell'attacco da parte di Piero Cannata
- I danni fisici apportati alla scultura
- La ricostituzione del dito
- Gli studi petrografici del marmo

Per Sua informazione le allego un estratto del progetto. Se ha bisogno di ulteriori informazione, non esiti a contattarmi.

La mia visita a Firenze avverrà durante la settimana dal 10 al 15 settembre.

Sono molto grata per la Sua gentilezza e sostegno.
Cordiale saluti,
M

Información importante para tu vuelo

Cada pasajero es responsable de la documentación necesaria para volar según su situación particular. Los mostradores de facturación de Vueling y Level (en vuelos dentro de Europa) cierran 40 minutos antes de la salida del vuelo, con las siguientes excepciones: en Roma y San Petersburgo cierran 45 minutos antes; en Ámsterdam, Tel Aviv, Beirut, Argel, Marrakech y Orán, o si viajas de Barcelona a Tel Aviv, o de París (Orly) a Casablanca que cierran 60 minutos antes. El embarque comienza 40 minutos antes de la salida del vuelo y finaliza 20 minutos antes de la hora de salida.

Si alguno de tus vuelos está operado por otra compañía, los tiempos de facturación y embarque pueden variar, consulta su página web.

Si eres una persona con discapacidad o movilidad reducida y olvidaste indicárnoslo durante la reserva, debes ponerte en contacto con nuestro Centro de Atención al cliente, con un mínimo de 48 horas de antelación a la salida prevista del vuelo. Este procedimiento es necesario para garantizar que la asistencia estará disponible.

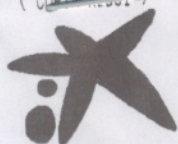

Puedes ampliar esta información en las condiciones de transporte de la compañía operadora: Condiciones de transporte Vueling, Condiciones de transporte Level, Condiciones de transporte Iberia o Condiciones de transporte de British Airways.

Aviso legal

El transporte realizado en virtud de este contrato está sujeto a las normas y limitaciones relativas a la responsabilidad de las compañías aéreas respecto al transporte aéreo de pasajeros y su equipaje establecidas por el Convenio de Montreal de 28 de mayo de 1999 y el Reglamento (CE) 2027/97 en su versión modificada por el Reglamento (CE) 889/2002. En el transporte doméstico español, la responsabilidad de Vueling Airlines, S.A. («Vueling») estará también sujeta a las limitaciones previstas por la Ley de Navegación Aérea de 21 de julio de 1960 y su normativa de desarrollo en los supuestos en los que sean aplicables. A este respecto, los límites máximos de responsabilidad aplicables a Vueling corresponderán a las cantidades en euros equivalentes a: (i) 16.000 derechos especiales de giro («DEG») en caso de muerte o lesión del pasajero, (ii) 4.694 DEG en caso de retraso del pasajero, y (iii) 1.131 DEG en caso de retraso, destrucción, pérdida o daños del equipaje. Si el valor del equipaje es superior al anterior límite, el pasajero podrá acogerse a un límite de responsabilidad más elevado efectuando una declaración especial de valor a más tardar en el

Atención: A fin de evitar fraudes, el personal autorizado podría pedirle que muestre la tarjeta de crédito con la que se haya comprado el billete. En caso de no exhibir la tarjeta de crédito, en original o en copia (si no es el titular de la tarjeta con la que se haya comprado el billete), es posible que no pueda embarcar.

Para obtener más información, póngase en contacto con nuestro Centro de Atención al Cliente en el 902100323

Los billetes de ida y vuelta o los billetes con escalas solo son válidos si se utilizan en el orden de vuelo especificado en el billete. Si el pasajero no llega a tiempo para embarcar en un vuelo, se anularán los billetes de los vuelos siguientes, a menos que esto se deba a circunstancias especiales. Para obtener más información, vaya a la página "Comprar online". Se aplicarán cargos por pasajero y billete. El cambio puede conllevar el pago de un suplemento si la tarifa original ya no está disponible. Siempre que la normativa de la tarifa adquirida permita cambios, éstos deberán solicitarse con la debida antelación. Siempre que la normativa de la tarifa permita el reembolso, éste podrá autorizarse siempre que se haya informado a Alitalia de la cancelación de la reserva con la debida antelación.
